

Lottery

I ran a lottery in the class (P.E) Had 3 cups - one for minor infractions - one a little more serious and the 3rd BAD.

On ice cream sticks I had what they had to do. They would draw for their punishment.

The students got a bigger kick out of it than I did. Some body would do something and they would yell out lottery.

I had a sign in the weight room.
 RAT ON YOUR BUDDY FOR FREE
 WATER (and they did)

There is another story about that
