

MA SSE BEAU

I had a study hall with about 90 students. wall to wall.

Tommy Massebeau gave me this look of contempt. (In the Corps - silent contempt is an offense). I grabbed him by the shirt and went to pull him up. he had locked his legs around the desk - so here I am with 90 eyes looking to see what I was going to do next, I slammed it up against the wall and it went flying.

I got him in the eject position and off we went - when we were approaching the door he tensed up. He thought I was going to throw him thru it. I stopped. He opened the door and away we went.

Next day Mr Wilson asked me what went on. I told him I threw a boy out. He said he heard there was an ado. I said I threw him out. I didn't ask him to leave.

He asked who it was. I said Tommy Massebeau. He said you should have killed him.

Massebeau came back in next day like nothing happened. Another boys dad called and said his son was afraid to go back in the study
